Compre appoints representative in Germany and Austria

Compre announces the appointment of Dr Heiko Frings as their Consultant representative in Germany and Austria.

Dr Frings is an Actuary and based in Munich. His company, Dr Heiko Frings Mathematische Unternehmensberatung GbR offers analytical risk consulting services for the strategic risk management of insurers in the German speaking markets. A special focus is given on the mathematical analysis of reinsurance structures.

“We are delighted to have Dr Frings representing Compre in these two important markets. We have worked with Heiko for some while and are therefore confident he will help to promote Compre’s service capability in Germany and Austria and bring us closer to the local markets” says John Halls - Managing Director of Compre Services (UK). He adds “Our strategy of establishing local service operations in key European markets is fundamental to developing our wider European footprint and helping us to gain a better understanding of the local issues and differing needs of European based companies”

Compre has service offices in London, Helsinki, Stockholm and Malmö. Dr Frings appointment further strengthens Compre’s profile in the German speaking markets of Europe.
